While the tax rate for school purposes in each school section of North Grimsby will take a drop of two or more mills this year, the general tax rate will be boosted a mill. So it was decided by the township legislators in special session on Saturday afternoon last when the tax rate for the year was set.

General school rate was set at 3.3 mills; county rate at 14.2 mills and the general tax rate at nine mills. It was eight mills last year. So what the taxpayer is saving in one spot he is paying out the other end.

The trustee rate in the various school sections is as follows: No. 1—2.7 mills; No. 2—2.6 mills; No. 3—2.4 mills; No. 4—3.5 mills; U6—5.7 mills; U6—4.6 mills; U7—5.2 mills; No. 13—4.8 mills.

Woodsman, Spare That Tree

Here's one from the book of memory. Tell us all about it. There should be a lot of people in this town and township that remember when this fine old tree succumbed to the woodsman's axe. When was it? Where did the tree stand? What are the names of the different properties showing in the picture? Can you name some of the people? Full dope next week.

With the lowest county mill rate in more than 25 years, and with provision made for such extra expenditures as $9,500 for the new county health unit, $1,000 to paint the court house, and $3,500 to install modern wash rooms in the court house, the annual county levy was passed last Wednesday by Lincoln County Council.

The levy this year is to raise $230,787, compared with $244,357 last year. This covers general purposes, roads and bridges, debenture debt charges, which ended early this year, patriotic and high and vocational school costs. End of debenture debt, and general savings, resulted in a lower levy this year for every municipality.

The levy on each municipality, with last year's figure in brackets, is: Niagara-on-the-Lake, $7,148.29 ($7,431.50); Merrittop, $18,118.85 ($19,380.66); Grimsby, $12,532.42 ($13,727.13); Port Dalhousie $7,869.23 ($8,294.16); Beamsville, $6,464.17, ($7,118.30); Niagara Township, $31,407.23, ($31,761.22); Grantham, $29,172.34, ($30,211.53); Louth, $30,502.50, ($32,471.88); Clinton, $28,560.50, ($30,753.38); North Grimsby, $23,391.27, ($24,290.32); South Grimsby, $7,696.22, ($8,761.93); Gainsboro, $16,940.08, ($18,172.00); Caistor, $10,932.90, ($11,582.99).

WEST LINCOLN HOSPITAL WORK RAPIDLY NEARING COMPLETION

Welcome Home

Major Vance R. Farrell is home again after four years' service overseas. A veteran of the Dental Corp. in the first Great War, he closed up his dentist office in 1940 and enlisted for active service. At the time of his enlistment he was serving his second term as Reeve of Grimsby. He is the son of ex-Mayor Charles T. and Mrs. Farrell, is married, has two children and resides at 17 Depot street.

SERVICEMEN ARRIVE HOME

Lieut. Norine Webster, daughter of Bertram Webster of Winona, and organist and choirmaster of St. Andrew's Church, Grimsby, has returned home on leave after three years nursing in the English Hospital in Shanghai, China, and the last three years with the American troops in England, France and Belgium. Miss Webster was the first nurse with the American troops to enter Belgium where the people showered her with many gifts and kindnesses.

Gunner W. G. May, the last of three sons of F. H. and Mrs. May, Gibson avenue, who have seen service in this war, returned home on Tuesday. Gunner May enlisted in 1940 with the heavy artillery and went overseas the same year. He was in the Normandy Invasion and was in Holland when he started the long trek home. Unlike his brothers, who are both still confined to hospital in Toronto, he escaped injury of any kind.

Pte. Nelson Copeland, eldest son of W. J. Copeland, Grimsby and Hamilton, arrived home on Tuesday afternoon. He enlisted in the spring of 1941 with the Argyll and Sutherland Highlanders and after serving on the West Coast spent 21 months on duty in Jamaica, arriving back in Canada in June of 1943 and proceeding overseas two months later. He was all through the Italian campaign and arrived in Europe with his unit in time to drive Heinie into his hole. "Copey" will be best remembered around town as Grimsby's "polar bear" due to the fact that in the winter time he never wore a suit coat or

GOVERNMENT IS RECEIVED

Happiest man in Grimsby last Saturday morning was A. R. "Sandy" Globe, and the cause of all his jubilation was that he had just received through the mail a marked cheque for $10,000, from the Ontario government for the West Lincoln Memorial hospital.

Last January "Sandy" and the Board of Directors of the hospital decided to approach the Ontario government with a view to receiving financial assistance for the hospital.

Various committees of Ladies' Auxiliary have been and are busy on such work as providing linens, blankets and the many details of what it takes to run a Hospital. Another committee has the job of supervising the painting and decorating, while yet another group has dishes, curtains, furniture, etc., in hand.

The Grimsby Natural Gas Co. is laying a new gas line from the park corner, which will furnish fuel for cooking and steam for sterilizing purposes. For general heating a very modern hot water system has been installed, all of which is automatically controlled to operate at a minimum cost.

FACTS & FANCIES

Frank Fairborn, Jr.

LAZY CITIZENS RUIN BEAUTY SPOTS

Somewhere, some time, a poet wrote "A Thing of Beauty Is A Joy Forever." But to a lot of Lazy Grimsby citizens a thing of beauty is just something to walk over and destroy.

I never realized until just recently how a little thoughtlessness combined with laziness can so quickly turn a beauty spot into an eyesore.

Take the entrance into Grimsby business section from the west, beginning at the top of Palmer's hill, is that not a really and truly beauty spot, a fitting setting for anyone, particularly a stranger, to admire. Yet if you will observe there is a very bad eyesore at the very beginning of this beauty spot. An eyesore that has been created by Grimsby citizens. Created because they are too lazy to walk on the sidewalk, they must take a short cut across the green grass sward.

What is the result? A cowpath right through the middle of a beautiful grass plot that shows up like a skyrocket on a black night. This cowpath is at the top of the hill, where people instead of walking around the bend of the hill on the sidewalk choose to destroy the lawn and its beauty by making a short cut across it. They possibly save themselves 10 feet of extra walking but to a lazy person this is a lot of mileage.

Another beauty spot that has been made to resemble a hayfield in Caistor, with a cowpath running through its middle, is the beautiful lawn at the Municipal grounds.

Beginning at a point on the sidewalk where Murray street enters Main street, the path starts and comes out on the sidewalk on Main street at the junction of the walk leading into the Municipal building. This path has been worn to such an extent that it is a great brown streak four to five feet wide and worn down a considerable depth below the grass level. It somewhat resembles a canal. It is an eyesore of the worst kind.

Also a smaller path has now been worn down crossways of the lawn from a point on Murray street back of the Municipal building to a point on Main street. Pretty soon there will be a big, ugly X dissecting this lovely lawn.

Why is this? Just because the citizens of Grimsby are so lazy that they would sooner walk across these paths and destroy the beauty of the lawn and its setting than to walk a few feet farther on the sidewalk.

I am more than surprised that some of our Town Fathers have not observed this destruction of these beauty spots. I am doubly surprised that Councillor Phelps who is a battler for parks and beauty spots has not observed this destruction and taken some action.

I believe that Councillor John Hewitt, Chairman of the Property Committee aided by Councillor Inglehart, Chairman of the Board of Works could devise some means of stopping the further use of these green swards as sidewalks and restore them to their natural beauty at very little expense.

A couple of small fences would soon stop the whole thing and if that did not stop it than a couple of summonses to Magistrate Campbell's court would surely do the trick.

It is not so many years ago that our poor, tired out, bedraggled citizenry made a disgraceful eyesore out of the beautiful lawn at the Public Library by making a shortcut across it from Depot street to Adelaide street. The Library Board put a stop to this lazy practise by the erection of the steel mesh fence that parallels the sidewalk on Depot street. The barricade saved that beauty spot.

There is no rhyme or reason why the beauty spots of Grimsby should be destroyed and turned into eyesores just because the people themselves are too lazy to walk a few extra feet on the sidewalk provided for that purpose.

I have been watching the two short cuts for some time and I know lot of people who are using them regularly, would like to see anybody go onto their property and start to use it in the same manner. There would be losses to pay. Therefore if these people won't stand for having their own beauty spots trampled down why should they trample down the public beauty spots.

Laziness is no excuse for destruction and the creation of eyesores.

THE TRUTH

We heartily agree with the Brantford Expositor when it says: "Spank them when they need it, is the advice lately given by a Professor at New York University. Looks as though the psychologists had come full circle. Maybe it's just as well, too. The number of rather thoroughly spoiled, not to say ill-mannered juveniles brought up under the 'child psychology' fads of the past few years, is really far too high."

Look about your own neighborhood, your own streets, and pleasure resorts where juveniles gather, and see if that is not the truth, the whole truth, and nothing but the truth. Psychology has its place in life, and a good place too, but it seems to us that for some years psychology has been used as an excuse by far too many parents to get out from under the duties and responsibilities of parenthood, and leave them to the teachers of public and Sunday schools.

That that kind of psychology has not worked, and never will work in the best interests of childhood, is apparent on every side.

Children are roaming the streets at all hours of the day and all hours of the night. Quite unchecked, they are doing things and saying things that astonish even the hardened policemen, and yet the parents remain unknowing and uninterested, or imagine it will come out all right in the end, because their children have far more sense than others, and as they grow older will automatically turn over a new leaf, as it were.

They won't. The newspapers and police courts are full of the fruits of that kind of psychology.

Like the twig, a child's mind is bent to respect authority in its youth, and if it doesn't learn then, and under its own parents, it never will.

And one of the best ways of instilling respect for authority in children's minds is, as the Brantford paper says: "Spank them when they need it."

CAN'T GET HEALTH OUT OF A BOTTLE

"You can't get health out of a bottle," says the heading of an advertisement widely published in the press by the Labor Socialist Government of New Zealand. This is not a counter-blast to patent medicine advertisements; it is an attempt to discourage New Zealanders from making too free use of "free medicine" and free doctor's services provided under the Government's social security scheme.

The result of this provision has been an enormous increase in the consumption of drugs in New Zealand—the increase is said to be at least 300 per cent.

The Director-General of Health for New Zealand has stated that for every seven shillings and sixpence paid out for medical benefits, six shillings are paid for drugs, and that the average cost of prescriptions has risen from two shillings and tenpence to four shillings.

These and other facts about the operations of the free medical services in New Zealand were presented in a report by the General Secretary of the Federal Council of Australia, Dr. J. G. Hunter, who recently visited New Zealand in order to secure first-hand information regarding the medical practice in that country.

Dr. Hunter says that the service given is that of a general practitioner; that no limit is placed on the number of patients he may have on his list, and the fees are fifteen shillings per annum. This form of service is not popular with the doctors. Forty practitioners are at present engaged in it, and they have 84,407 patients on their lists, an average of 2,110 for each doctor. A few doctors have large lists, and one is said to have a list of 10,000 persons, mostly Maoris.

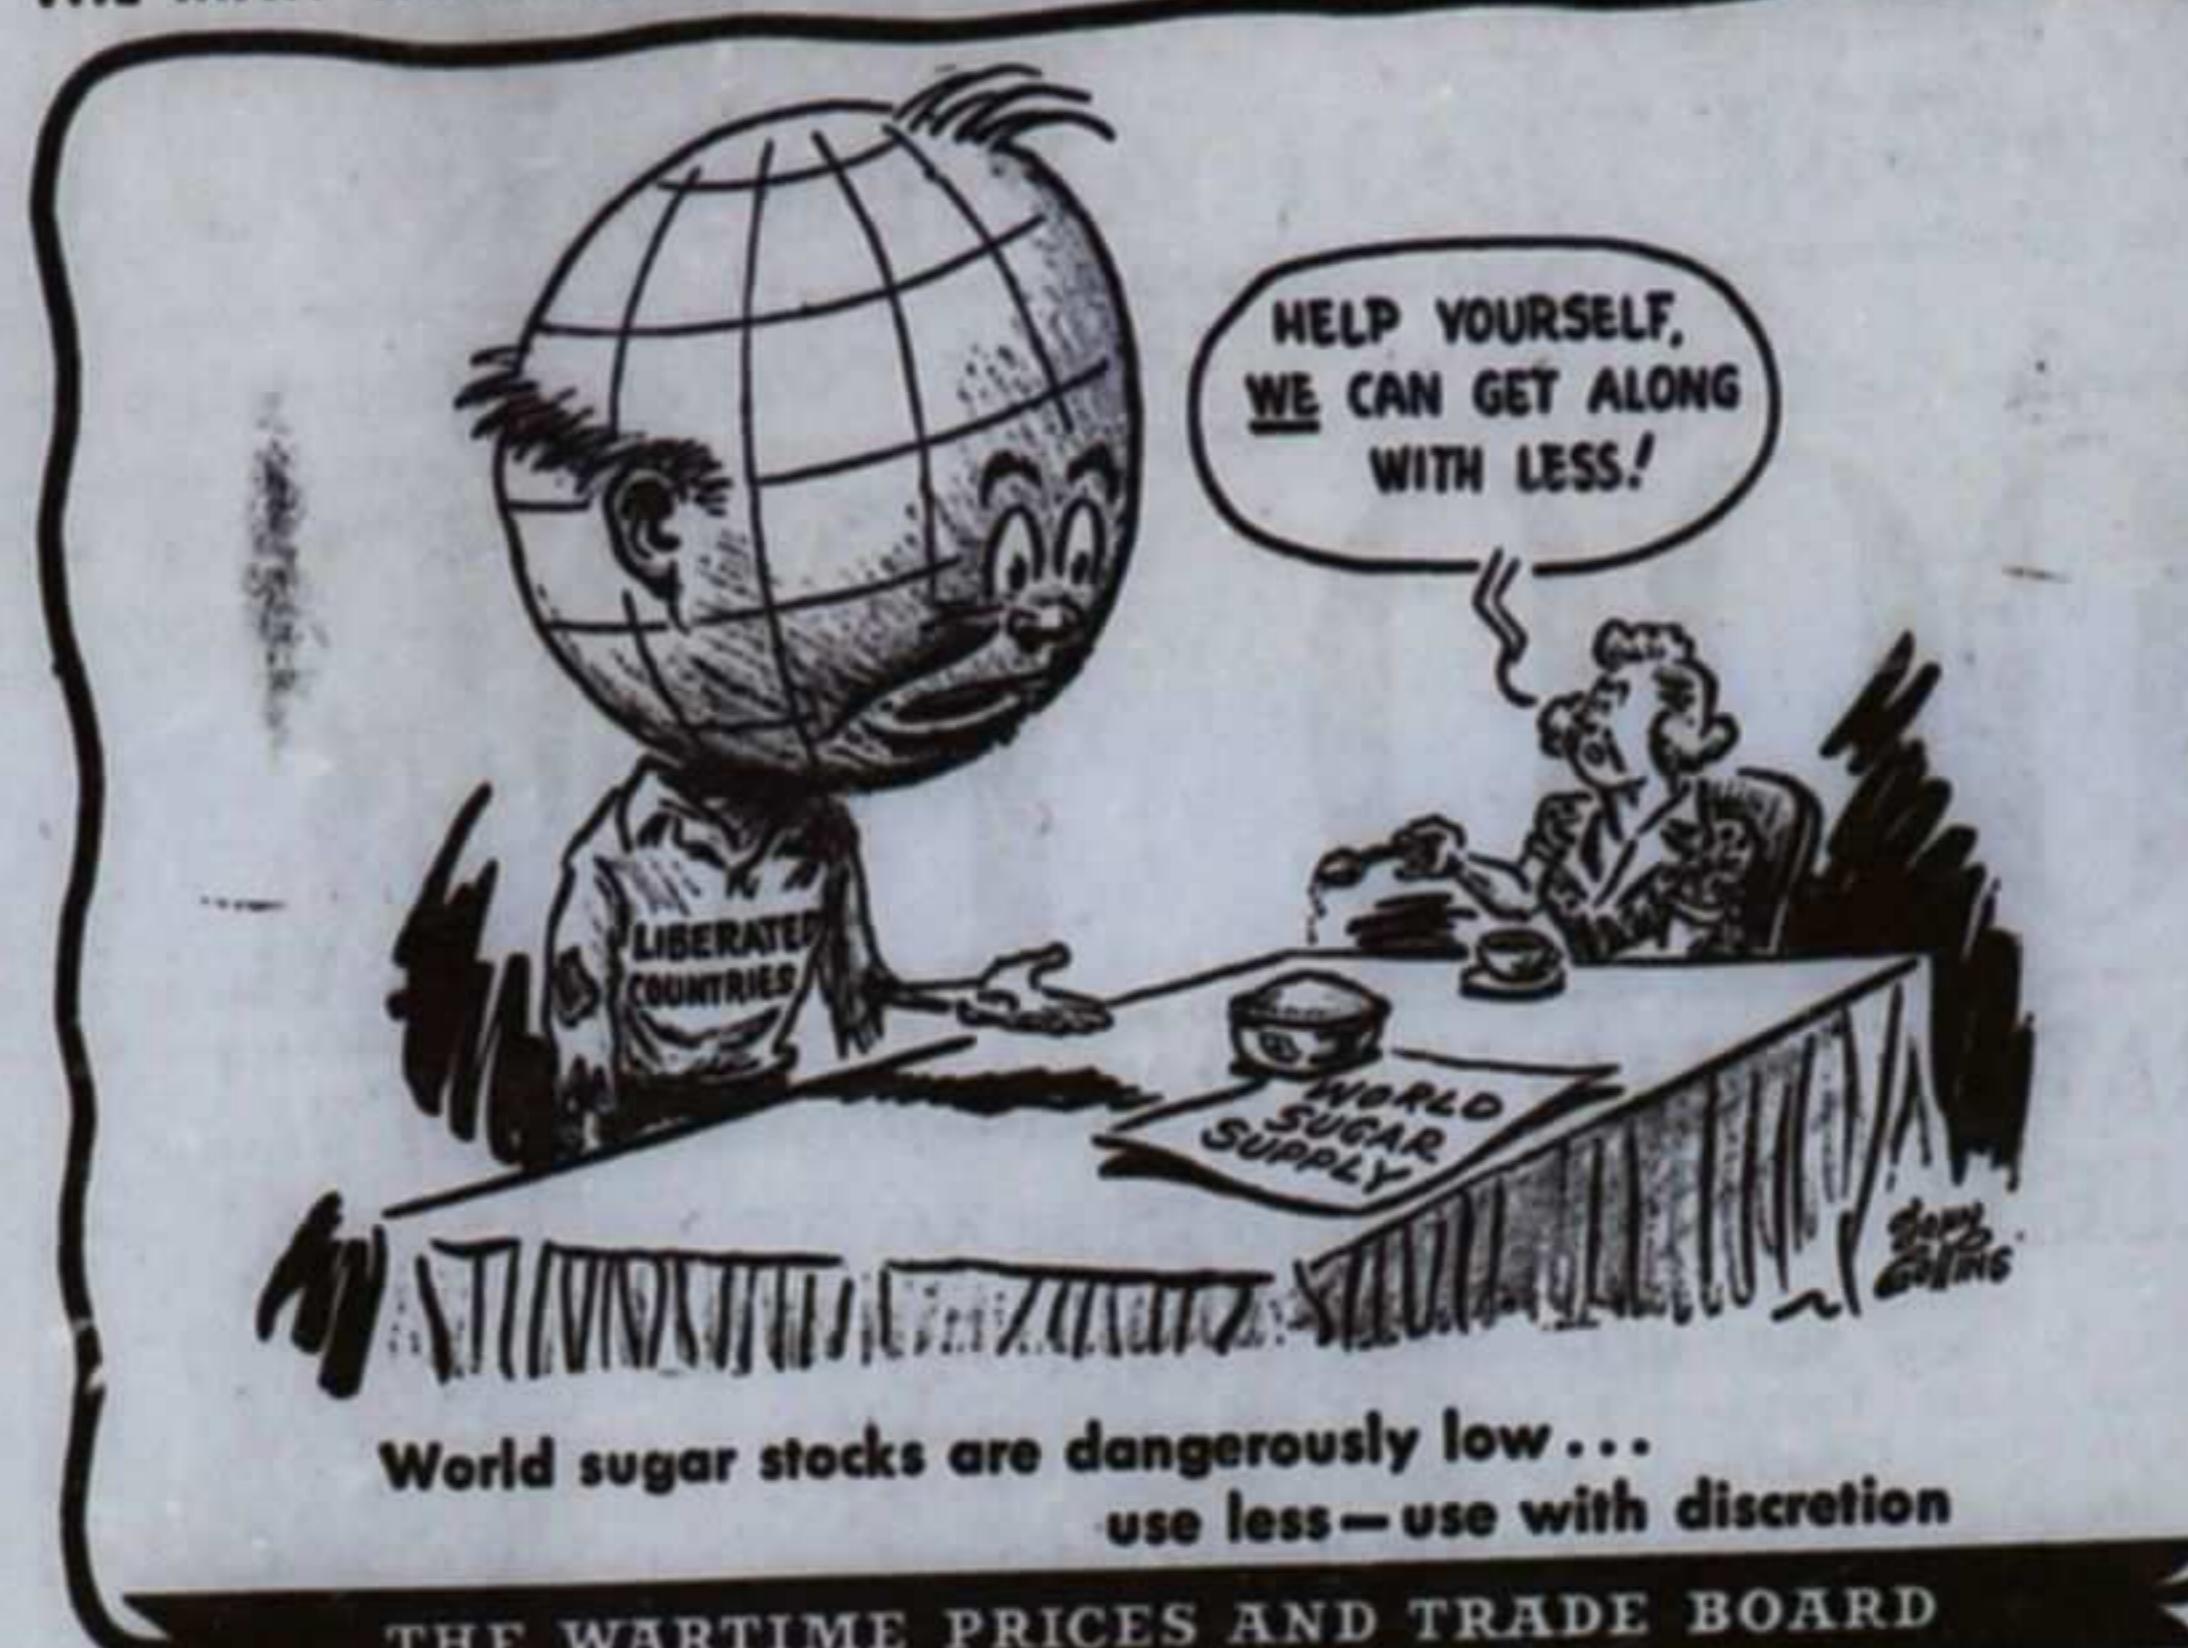

Dr. Hunter says that the "fee-for-service plan" operates under three stems:

(1) Refund—whereby the doctor charges his ordinary fee and the patient is reimbursed by the Government to the extent of schedule of rates. (2) Fee-for-service proper—the doctor accepts payment directly from the Social Security Fund. (3) Token system—the doctor looks to the Fund for payment of his account and to the patient for the remainder. (This system is regarded as illegal).

Dr. Hunter says: "There is a sharp difference of opinion among medical practitioners in New Zealand as to which of two systems, the refund and the fee-for-service system, they prefer: opinion is almost evenly divided.

There is a salary basis for special areas, and the Minister has power to declare any area a "special area;" he can introduce a salaried service into any area.

"Finally," says Dr. Hunter, "New Zealand's scheme of "free medicine" and its striking results must be mentioned. . . . Prescribing is not limited to a formulary; and with certain exceptions a practitioner may order, without cost to patient, any drugs, medicines or medical preparations." The result has been an enormous increase in the consumption of drugs. Dr. Hunter, in his comment on this state of affairs, says the doctors and the druggists are "not entirely blameless," and he quotes the following words, but does not state their origin: "To give or repeat a prescription is the easiest way of getting rid of a patient."

Commenting on this result, Dr. Hunter says it is "not without its amusing side," and he quotes the Government advertisement, "You can't get health out of a bottle." The advertisement, he says, lays stress on "the basis of healthful living: adequate diet, personal hygiene, physical activity and mental health."

INCOME TAX SPREAD

The Department of National Revenue has issued an interesting bulletin on income tax collections, graded according to incomes. If all people with $3,000 or less were exempt, the treasury would forfeit $324,000,000, as collected in 1944. If all people with $10,000 or less were exempt, the government would lose three-quarters of its total revenue.

The contribution of the various income groups are shown in the following table:

Income	(in millions)
Below $1,000	$ 19.7
1,000 to $2,000	146.3
$2,000 to $3,000	158.4
$3,000 to $5,000	81.5
$5,000 to $10,000	94.7
$10,000 to $25,000	89.3
$25,000 to $50,000	48.5
$50,000 to $100,000	25.2
Over $100,000	18.3

These figures show clearly how the bulk of the nation's income goes to the smaller income group because it comprises most of the people of the nation. There were 2,450,000 income taxpayers in 1944, and of these 385,000 earned less than $1,000; 1,290,000 earned between $1,000 and $2,000 (the most numerous group); 595,000 earned between $2,000 and $3,000; and 115,000 between $3,000 and $5,000.

After that, the number of taxpayers tails off sharply. There were only 48,200 in the group between $5,000 and $10,000; 13,900 between $10,000 and $25,000; 2,250 between $25,000 and $50,000; 500 between $50,000 and $100,000; and 150 over $100,000.

In other words, there are just not enough people in the upper income brackets to pay nearly what the government needs.

CURE FOR GRUMBLERS

Complainers in the United States were given pertinent reminder and rebuke by Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt the other day, when she commented that if they had to live on the British ration for a month they would be much more satisfied with what they have.

This admonition applies with almost equal force to Canadians, says The Windsor Daily Star. They may think they are making sacrifices if they have to deprive themselves of a few tid-bits, but a month on the British ration would prove a revelation. And when they would note that Britons have been living on that meagre fare for five years their cure would be complete.

Marriages

ALDRICK-BANT

A lovely wedding took place in England on July 8th at Smeathwick Old Church, when Nora, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bant, of Smeathwick was united in marriage to W/O Robert Aldrick, R.C.A.F., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Aldrick of Grimsby, Ontario.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in an original model of rich ivory white moss crepe, cut on simple classical lines. Her veil of very fine tulle, with Brussels lace applique, was held in place with a halo of pearls, and orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

The bridesmaids, Meg. Martin and Jean Hower, were gowned alike in cherry red crepe, made with swathed bodices and very full flared skirts. Their headdresses were feather and tulle in ice blue, they carried bouquets of hydrangeas in matching colour.

W/O Jurek Danieliewicz was best man, the groomsmen, Stanley Taylor, a cousin of the groom, the ushers were Cyril Rose and Kenneth Bant.

The reception followed for 85 guests, at the Red Bow Hotel. The toast to the Bride and Groom was proposed by Mr. Kirk, who has been present at the wedding of both the Bride's and Groom's parents. When the toast to the Bride's parents was given, Mr. Bant responded with a toast to the Groom's parents in Canada, who were unable to be present.

One feature of the day was a three tiered iced wedding cake, practically unheard of in these days. Another was that seven ex-prisoners-of-war who were prisoners with W/O Aldrick, were present for the wedding.

The couple were honeymooning at Ross-on-Wye, Herefordshire until July 24th, when W/O Aldrick's leave is finished and he will be returned to Canada. Mrs. Aldrick will follow her husband later, when transportation can be arranged.

Cellars Take On Interesting Character

(By Ebel M. Eaton, in Christian Science Monitor)

Time was when a cellar was just a cellar—it aspired to nothing more. Not so today. Those cellarars childhood knew—remember? When the cellar door was opened, up drifted the fragrance of ripe apples and the tantalizing pungency of smoked ham and bacon. Treasure houses of good things were those cellars of yesterday—and they are still to be found back in the country. Today, however, a cellar, even in the country, can be almost anything—except a cellar! They have been transformed into smart kitchens for modern entertaining museums, rumpus rooms, little theaters—even a log camp!

An antique enthusiast whom I know has created, in her cellar, a replica of an early New England kitchen; and for a hobby, she carries on there the old-time industries of candle molding and soap-making. The cellar's wide pine floor boards are painted pumpkin yellow and covered with hand-braided rugs; the sheathed walls are of knotty pine; the cavernous fireplace and brick oven are surrounded with all the old-time cooking utensils.

And another, which I know, is a very large cellar, and the fireplace end is used for entertaining. I once had a delicious luncheon there, of which came out of the old one. There were baked beans, brown bread, and Indian pudding; and a had that incomparable flavor that only long, slow baking in a br oven can achieve. Between third of the cellar and the other sliding doors, an ingenious contrived that you think they just a partition—until they're noiselessly open, reveals completely equipped and professional-looking little thr.

But I think at unusual role for a cellar to is that of a summer camp professional man in a large, with many demands on his time and energy, owns a log cabin on the edge of a faraway wilderness lake. Travel conditions being what they are these days, it isn't possible for him to get away to this spot as often as he would like. So what did he do but have a replica of the cabin interior built in the spacious basement of his home! When the door closes behind him, he is just as far away from telephone and doorbell as if he had travelled 100 miles to get there. The household knows when he is at his cabin retreat and does not intrude on his seclusion. Of course he doesn't remain as long as when he goes to the north woods, but he can slip away often—just for a nap perhaps.

A political machine doesn't have to be retooled.

Skunks Take The Place Of Peaches

A truck was backed up to the side of the house. A hose attached to the exhaust pipe and plenty of Carbon Monoxide fumes were distributed into the nest.

By the use of a long handled rake the skunks were dragged forth in a very stupified condition. Nine of them all told. The old female and eight partially grown young ones. The judicious use of a shot gun ended their odiferous career on this earth.

They are now all under the sod.

No wonder Adam and Eve were not contented. There wasn't anybody to buy souvenirs.

County Will Set Up Health Unit

New Board Will Have Three Members Each From County And St. Catharines — Fully Approved.

A county health unit is to be set up jointly by Lincoln County and the City of St. Catharines, following adoption of the agreement by the county council last week. St. Catharines city council passed the agreement previously.

The health unit is to be directed by a board, consisting of three members from the city, three from the county, and one appointed by the government. County council appointed as its representatives Warden Cecil Secord, Reeve Roy A. Saunders, Beamsville, and Dr. C. G. Shaver, superintendent of the Niagara Peninsula Sanatorium.

Warden Secord at the start of his term gave notice that the plan would be one of the major items of business to face this year's county council. He set up a special health committee under the chairmanship of Reeve Saunders, and they, together with the committee and council, have worked untiringly to make the health unit a reality.

When the proposed agreement came before council it passed quickly without comment or opposition.

an overcoat. His brother Corp. David Copeland of the Toronto Irish arrived home from overseas last week.

Pte. Elmer Cosby has returned from overseas. After months of training in England, he was unable to go into action in Europe, because of some trouble in his ears. He spent several months in hospital in England and was sent home on the hospital ship "Letitia". He expects to receive his discharge soon.

Sgt. G. H. Bingle, son of Alfred and Mrs. Bingle, Grassies Road, North Grimsby, was among the arrivals on Tuesday. He comes by his army service naturally as he is a great-great-grandson of Col. Booker, one of the heroic defenders of Canada in the war 1812-13. Unfortunately we have no data on this boy and his service in this war at all.

Cpl. Angus P. Clarke, enlisted with the R.C.A.C. in September, 1939 and went overseas with that outfit in August, 1940. In England he was transferred to the Carleton and York Regt. from the Maritimes and was through the Sicily and Italian campaigns. Back in Holland in March of 1945, he was wounded and lost the sight of one eye. His wife and five kiddies reside at 46 Mountain street. Previous to enlistment he was a salesman for Clare Rushton at that time handling radios and household appliances.

The sugar outlook seems anything but sweet.

Last Sunday evening in the Bell Park, at Grimsby Beach, a very fine Pageant was presented by a local group of Sunday school workers and friends, under the direction of Mr. A. Massey Gundy of Montreal, who brought with him fifty beautiful costumes featuring "From the Manger to the Cross". A visitor to Grimsby on Sunday, the first since she left here as a little girl 41 years ago, was Mrs. Pearl Snoddy of Hamilton. She was the former Pearl Shee whose father for about two years conducted a tinsmithing business and kitchen utensils shop in the old Malakoff building, where the liquor store now is, back in 1903-04. She lived in Hamilton for some years after leaving Grimsby and then went to Chicago where she resided up until a short time ago when she returned to Hamilton. She has many vivid recollections of her little girlhood days in Grimsby and recalled many incidents and the names of many of the kiddies that she went to school with.

Have Released Baby Pheasants

250 Seven-Week-Old Chicks Turned Loose — 2,000 To Follow — Hatched And Raised In Captivity.

A back-to-the-land movement by pheasants raised in captivity to improve fall hunting started in Lincoln on Saturday when 250 seven-week-old pheasants were liberated.

Some 600 members of the Niagara District Pheasant Breeders' Association saw first fruit of their plan to make the Niagara Peninsula a second Pelee Island. Starting from a flock of about 100 adult birds received from the Ontario Department of Fisheries last year, the Association now has breeding pens scattered throughout Lincoln and Welland Counties.

They have 2,300 chicks hatched in incubators and have another 5,000 eggs gathered as they are laid by the parent flock. More than 2,000 birds will be released this year in time for the fall hunting season when they will be wild enough to hunt.

Some 50 members congregated Saturday at the farm of Art Thompson near St. Catharines and were given boxes containing up to a dozen chicks which they liberated in their favorite hunting haunts throughout the peninsula.

Real Estate

Hyton Briscoe has sold his fruit farm on No. 8 Highway west, seven and one-half acres on the north side of the highway and five and one-half acres on the south side running up the mountainside, to Mr. Sankoo, Regina, Sask. Mr. Briscoe first came to Grimsby in 1891 from Ireland and while he worked in New York for years he always spent his summers here, finally settling on the farm which he had purchased in the late 90's. He will reside in California in the future.

Col. G. R. Chetwind of Ottawa is the purchaser of the frame house and seven acres of land known as the Pinder place, on the south side of No. 8 Highway, just east of the Park Road.

Brevities

Several persons, including a group of women and children, had a very narrow escape from injury on Saturday night, when a motorcycle, in charge of a Beamsville youth who had only purchased it a few days ago, mounted the sidewalk, crashed into the front of the Russ apartment building and then swerved around a group of pedestrians and overturned on the sidewalk. The skidding cycle missed both women and children by a scant margin. Chief Constable W. W. Turner, who investigated, has recently warned out-of-town motorists.

Fish are biting good in the North Country. Or at least in that section of the rock and bushland where Little Whizzer and Helen Kammerer are in seclusion for six weeks. A new house will be built on the front portion of the property. The rear portion of the land was sold some time ago to Whitney Groff.

PITCAIRN ISLAND—PORT OF CALL

(Marc T. Greene in THE
CHRISTIAN SCIENCE MON-ITOR)

Four thousand miles southwest from Panama. In the faint light of the subtropical dawn a dark shape appears on the western horizon, directly over the bow. In every direction stretches the mighty expanse of the Pacific. As the day lightens, tiny flecks of white on the far-reaching blue attest the last breath of the falling southeast trade winds.

Presently the oval shape on the horizon takes definite form. Its clothing of green foliage becomes discernible, and the long rim of the surf playing along the base of the steep rocky sides. Sharp peaks rise on either hand, remains of mighty prehistoric volcanoes. A few houses begin to appear among the coconut palms. You see the bit of beach which is the only landing place. Small boats are putting off. The people of Pitcairn Island are eager to welcome the first vessel in many months.

The ocean is calm and smooth with only a gentle undulation stirring its surface, and we are able to approach to within a few hundred yards of Bounty Bay, at the right side of which, deep beneath the sea, can still be discerned the remains of His Majesty's sloop-of-war Bounty.

The anchor is dropped in 30 fathoms of water and presently the first of the Pitcairn boats, 14-oared, with Parkins Christian, Chief Magistrate of the Island, at the long steering oar, is alongside the sea ladder dropped from the English freighter's high bulwarks.

"Are we all right here?" hails the Captain through his megaphone to Christian in the Pitcairn boat.

"You are all right in this weather, sir," the seventh in descent from Fletcher Christian, master's mate of the Bounty, answers politely.

Two more boats draw up and the adult male population of Pitcairn Island scrambles up the 12,000-ton ship's side much as Chinese junkmen used to board American liners in the harbour of Hong Kong. Eighty islanders, of a wide range of age, mostly dark of complexion, generally robust in appearance, are soon aboard. They greet us with amiable smiles, for they have been eagerly awaiting our appearance for many months. Also we have no less than 37 sacks of mail, accumulated at Panama for Pitcairn during that time.

The men of Pitcairn have come out to trade and are anxious to commence. They have rich stores of fruit—baskets of native grass overflowing with bananas and oranges and lemons, papaya and pineapples and tomatoes and muskmelons and mangoes. Also baskets cunningly woven of colored grasses, boxes of many sorts and shapes carved of a peculiar wood which the islanders in their small boats seek on Henderson's Island, more than 100 miles from Pitcairn.

We have ransacked our luggage for such clothing as can be dispensed with, for that is the Pitcairn Islanders' chief need, especially women's clothing. Grateful indeed are these people, these 175 men, women and children living in an isolation scarce matched in the world, for any kind of clothing a passing vessel leaves for them.

Next in need are flour, soap, razors, blades, writing paper and sweets.

The islanders produce their own salt and sufficient sugar, but they are avid for the candy of commerce.

Their eyes gleam when some of us produce what we have been able to buy from the ship's stores. Tinned milk is also regarded as a treasure, especially for the babies. But no coffee nor tea is used on Pitcairn—no alcohol nor tobacco.

Parkins Christian, the Chief Magistrate, comes aboard, accompanied by a missionary.

The two are guests of the Captain at lunch. The magistrate is a man well over six feet tall, finely proportioned, dark of complexion, with gray hair and penetrating eyes. He has an assistant in the administration of Pitcairn two "assessors", a police officer, and a "committee on internal affairs". All these are elected yearly in the fashion of an old New England town meeting. Last year there were five candidates for Chief Magistrate.

Of the original names of the Bounty there are now perpetuated on Pitcairn only Christian and Young. From the pilgrimage to Norfolk Island 90 years ago, no Quintals nor Adamses nor McCoys returned to their first home. But the Christian name is continued in no less than five families today on Pitcairn and the Young in three. At least half the population is the posterity of people who came to Pitcairn through the years following the discovery of the refuge of the mutineers by Captain Matthew Folger, of the New Bedford whaler Topaz, in 1812. This accounts for the many fair complexions, the descendants of the original inhabitants being marked by dark hair and skin.

MEN FOR HOME BUILDING MUST BE SECURED

Home building is highly essential to overcome pressing housing shortages, and to provide dwellings for the Forces as discharged.

Shortages of workers for building homes and for producing the building materials are threatening to impede Canada's program for the construction of 50,000 homes as soon as possible.

All men experienced in home building or in producing building materials, who are not now working in either of these industries, are urged to apply to the nearest office of the National Employment Service immediately.

All men, not now at house building nor producing supplies, who can fill a job in this program, are urged to answer this call.

Apply at once at the nearest office of the National Employment Service.

It works equally as well on a person overcome with carbon monoxide fumes, gas fumes, etc., as well as on a drowning person. Negotiations are now under way for the purchase of this pulmotor and the firemen have hopes that one of these machines can be secured for demonstration purposes on carnival nights.

According to H. T. Stewart, Bell Telephone manager in this area, the new book contains about 11,600 listings new and changed since the last issue, including the new in the Grimsby section.

"To conserve paper, directories are now issued at less frequent intervals than in former years, so that it is important to consult the new directory carefully before placing calls, and to bring desk lists and memo pads up to date," Mr. Stewart said. "Avoiding unnecessary calls to wrong numbers helps us to serve you better."

It is hoped that on receiving the new books, telephone users will contribute the old ones to the regular salvage collection, paper being still in great demand.

HERE'S HOW YOUR $1,342 for patriotic, vocational schools $1,045. Grimsby being a High school centre pays nothing into the county for High school expenditure.

North Grimsby contributes to the county $23,391 this year. It will be spent in this manner: general purposes $7,256; roads and bridges $4,066; debenture charges $803; patriotic, $11,604; High schools, $8,077; vocational schools, $1,579.

You will notice debenture debt charges in the above amounts despite the fact that Lincoln county is free of debt. This comes about through the fact that the last debentures fell due and were paid off on January 2nd, this year, therefore this amount comes in 1945 taxes.

GRIMSBY NAVY BOY of two naval ratings, equipped only with buckets, who braved the dangers of exploding shells while trying to prevent the spread of flames following the explosion in the Bedford Basin ammunition dump.

One of the ratings was Patrolman Frank Hill of Grimsby, Ont., who, with a companion whose name could not be determined, helped in the battle against the flames until ordered from the area as officials feared further huge blasts.

Buildings were blown up all around the two ratings as they tried with buckets of water to quench the fire, said Lieut. Coade, medical stores officer from the Atlantic coast.

Patrolman Hill was born and raised in Grimsby and lived here practically all his life. He enlisted in the Canadian navy three years ago. His wife and children are at present staying in Powasson. To all hockey followers of this district he will be better remembered under his nickname of "Razorback". He has a brother Sergt. Wm. Hill in the R.C.A.F. at Hagersville.

TOWNSHIP TAX RATE already spent. General expenses will be $10,515 and County Rate will be $23,391.

At the suggestion of Roads Chairman Mitchell council agreed to give the Ridge Road west, from the top of the mountain to Beamer's Falls, another coat of tar in dressing at an expense of $900. Also tenders will be called for the erection of a new bridge over the creek at Beamer's Falls at a cost of $4,000, of which amount the Department of Highways will contribute 75 per cent or $3,000.

Council have an appointment with Minister of Highways Doucett for August 31st, to take up the question of payment by the Department of $1,000 that the council claim is still owing to them on snow removal costs.

Mr. James GMacIntosh for the past five years tax collector for the township tendered his resignation, owing ill health, and the township as result is losing a very valued and highly respected official.

Mitchell—Crittenden—That the resignation of Mr. MacIntosh, Tax Collector, be accepted with regret and this council wish to express our thanks to him for the very efficient way in which he did his work and hope that he will soon be restored to good health. Carried.

Coun. Mitchell sponsored a motion to have the Township Engineer make a complete and thorough survey of the Woolverton mountain road, also as to ownership of property and to make an estimate of cost of repairing the road.

Council discussed the mountain school area briefly but adjourned without taking any further action in the matter.

WEST LINCOLN HOSPITAL Some $18,000.00 has been spent on heating, plumbing and electrical work, which in the ordinary sense does not make much of a show but has been plenty of work.

The main entrance is being finished in Travertine marked off in stone effect, which gives a very massive effect. Here it is proposed a small tuck shop will be operated from the business office, for the convenience of both patients and visitors.

All plastering is now completed. Some finishing carpentry and sound proofing together with floor tile work is now being done, all of which should not take so very much longer. As the job now stands one may gain some idea of what it will look like, and many visitors have remarked on the wonderful planning job done to provide so much space all to good use.

Pledges and promises are being paid in. The $10,000.00 announced recently by the Hon. Chas. Daley, as the Ontario Government share, has now been paid. This together with the design work by the Department of Public Works, and guidance of the Department of Health, makes a very substantial contribution for the benefit of the people of this district from the Province of Ontario, and provides confidence that the job is properly done.

Miss Douglas McRobbie, who will superintend and be in charge of the Hospital, is tying the many strings together and concerned mostly at the moment in seeing that there will be plenty of cupboards and shelves, coupled with this the many details from ration points to the freezing of fruit provides lots to think about.

It will be of interest to our people to know nursing equipment first designed by the Ontario Department of Health for the West Lincoln Memorial Hospital, has now been set as a Standard, is already actively in use in several of the largest Hospitals in Ontario, and is considered by the Department as a big move to safeguard the lives of infants.

This together with the most modern equipment being assembled will place the West Lincoln in an outstanding position as a Model Small Hospital.

LINCOLN MILL RATE Council approved purchase of a vacant store and land at the southwest corner of the intersection of No. 8 Highway and the town line at Vineland. The building will be torn down and the corner widened to remove a traffic hazard.

Unsanitary condition of the ditch beside the county road running north from Beamsville was discussed, following a resolution passed at the June session asking the Ontario Department of Health to investigate the condition. The Department wrote that it felt the county should clean out the ditch, but council yesterday decided to reply to the Department that the ditch is for draining the county road, and is not for the use of the canning factory which apparently was polluting the stream.

The request of the Ontario Sick Children's Hospital for a grant for its building fund was left in abeyance, and Clerk W. H. Millward was directed to write that council's budget had been compiled and that no provision for such grant had been made. Council decided to review its budget later and make a grant if possible.

The letter from the Silverdale Auxiliary of the Women's Missionary Society, protesting council's attitude two months ago in demanding removal of Japanese-Canadians from this district, was received and filed, without any action being taken.

Resolutions from other counties endorsed by Lincoln included one from Waterloo, urging more anthracite coal for brooders to increase the hatching of chicks; Midsex, urging permission to pay bounties on foxes; and Elgin, urging that births be registered in the municipality where the parents live at the time of the birth.

Reeve George Wiley, Louth, asked if the council planned to resume its annual county picnics. When interest seemed lacking, Deputy Reeve R. G. Dawson, Niagara Township, suggested that the picnic of the County Federation of Agriculture at Vineland August 8th be made a county affair.

The future is always bright. It is before you despite the fact you may have borrowed well into it.
